

COME TO ME

JESS D'ANGEL

Jessica D'Angel, known as JESS D'ANGEL, returns to the stage to present COME TO ME, a song that invites you to celebrate the search of the destined love.

Composed by JESS in lyrics and melody, COME TO ME was born with a dedication. "I wrote it at a time when I had not realized that there is a connection of lives. The theme refers to the belonging of two souls, whatever it may be and whatever it may be."

COMETO ME was written for an Ecuadorian singer-songwriter, in part of the theme JESS wanted to highlight some songs by different artists from her country Ecuador, and this is how this song says: "Por el alma en los labios te haré prisionero. Ángel de Luz, Sólo tu Amor hace Tabaco y Chanel. Transparente es mi Playa Azul, Parte de Ti mi piel. Estás aquí, ya lo sé."

COMETO ME was produced by Latin Grammy winner, Gerónimo Labrada, in Chile. And it is distributed on all music platforms by the spanish record company ACE Musica.
